Two weeks ago, we celebrated Resurrection Day. My prayer has been that we would celebrate Christ's resurrection daily as we live out the "Christ life." Living in this manner brings continual joy to our lives, and it provides hope to those around us.

When we seek to have the Mind of Christ, our lives move from selfishness to selflessness. We begin to see people and situations, good or bad, as opportunities to serve our King.

Today, we move to a section of Scripture that many only skim through. Paul deals with a problem that most people are stuck neck-deep in...complaining and arguing. These two things are prevalent in our day, and as Christ-followers, we must understand that both hinder our ability to share the Gospel effectively.

Our message title is "Shining as Stars," and our points will be:

- 1 - Working Out Your Salvation
- 2 - Shining as Stars
- 3 - Rejoicing Always

Because He Calls,
Pastor Miles
