Last week, we took a look at Nehemiah as he “Took Action” to help God’s people. After bathing the situation in Prayer, he Rose to the Occasion by Boldly seeking God’s Will.

Upon arriving in Jerusalem, Nehemiah assessed the Situation and Shared the Truth with the people before Delegating the Responsibility of rebuilding the wall.

Today, we will see Nehemiah Standing Up to Opposition. God’s people always seem to be surrounded by enemies, and this was the case in Nehemiah’s time. The people had been rallied, but they had little strength, and the people around them sought to take advantage of this.

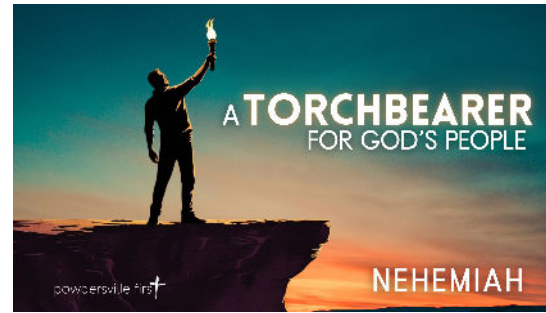

In Chapters 4-6, we will see Nehemiah encouraging and caring for God’s people amid opposition. The title of our message today is: A Godly Leader Stands Up to Opposition, and our points will be:

- 1 - A Godly Leader Will Pray
- 2 - A Godly Leader Will Not Kowtow to Naysayers
- 3 - A Godly Leader Will Encourage Their Followers
- 4 - A Godly Leader Will Not Forsake Others in the Midst of Opposition
- 5 - A Godly Leader Will Trust in God

Because He Calls,
Pastor Miles

A Godly Leader Stands Up to Opposition
Nehemiah 4:1-6:19

- Explain the depth of your Prayer life.

- Why is it important not to “kowitz” to naysayers?

- Explain the importance of encouragement.

- Why should we seek to encourage others?

- Why should we seek to help those in need?

- In what parts of your life do you fail to trust in God?
