This week is special in the life of Powdersville First. Today, we will have a Deacon Ordination service. Two men rotate off of our Deacon Body after three years of service. Rick

Thomas and Rick Owings have served this congregation well, and even though on January 1st, they will be considered “inactive deacons,” they will continue to serve you. We should praise the Lord for calling out men like these to serve His church.

The two men rotating on are Scott King and Brandon Duncan. Scott has served this congregation in the past, and we look forward to his return to an active status. Brandon has never served as a deacon, and he will be ordained today. We look forward to him using the gifts, talents, and abilities that God has provided to him as he serves Powdersville First.

Make no mistake. Today’s service isn’t about any of these men. We are gathered this morning to worship our Savior and to edify the saints. I pray that all would do so together.

Because He Calls,
Pastor Miles

Deacon Ordination
(Acts 6:1-7 & I Timothy 3:8-13)

Supporting Texts - Matthew 6:24, Matthew 5:27-28

Deacon Ordination
Acts 6:1-7 & 1 Timothy 3:8-13

- Define what a deacon is.

- Share some of your experiences with deacons, both good and bad.

- Are deacons “super saints?” Explain.

- Why does Paul give a list of qualifications for deacons in 1 Timothy?

- Read 1 Timothy 3:8-13. Is one qualification more important than another? Explain.
