

April 26, 2026

Last week, we looked at God's Love for Outsiders. It was great to see God extend His love to this woman named Ruth from Moab. Not only did God lead Ruth back to Judah, but He provided her a kinsman redeemer as well. Boaz, a man of standing, showed interest in this young foreigner.

We also looked at how much difference a chapter makes. At the end of Chapter 1, Naomi wanted to change her name to Mara, "bitter," but at the end of Chapter 2, she is excited about God's blessing of a redeemer.

Today, we will see an interesting encounter at the threshing floor. We will see hope, romance, and submission, but don't think for a minute that there was any funny business between Boaz and Ruth.

Our sermon title is Searching for a Redeemer. Our points will be:

- 1 - Finding a Home
- 2 - An Unusual Proposal
- 3 - A Redeemer Who is Ready

As we continue in 2026, may we Seek Holiness together.

Because He Calls,
Pastor Miles

Searching for a Redeemer (Ruth 3:1-18)

Supporting Texts - Acts 20:35, Deuteronomy 23:3-4, Acts 10:34-35,
John 6:44, Hebrews 9:14, Ephesians 4:22-24,
2 Peter 1:3-4, Ruth 2:12, James 2:14-17, 1 Peter 3:3-4

Searching for a Redeemer
Ruth 3:1-18

- How important would having a man of noble character for a husband have been to Ruth?

- Explain the importance of husbands in our day, being men of noble character.

- Why did Ruth have to uncover Boaz's feet?

- Explain the importance of the corner of Boaz's garment spread over Ruth.

- How did Boaz show that he was ready to redeem?
