Three weeks ago, we looked at God's Redemptive Judgment, and then two weeks ago, we saw God's Restorative Grace. God wasn't pitching a fit when

He sent the Flood on the earth. There was purpose behind His judgment, and I hope that we apply what we learn in this sermon series to our everyday lives for His glory.

Today, we will move to the last part of Genesis 8 as we look at a message titled, Noah's Response, God's Promise. Noah and his family had been cooped up in the ark with all of those animals for just over a year. Now that the earth was dry again, they would exit the ark. Don't miss what Noah did first.

Our message will come from Genesis 8:20-22, and our points will be:

- 1 - Noah Offers Up Thanksgiving
- 2 - Noah Worships
- 3 - God Accepts Noah's Worship
- 4 - God's Promise

Because He Calls,
Pastor Miles

Noah's Response, God's Promise (Genesis 8:20-22)
